

Episode 4 WM D.Truth Home

Scene 1: The Departure

(Inside a BMW, 10-year-old Monkey looks out the back window at a magnificent castle fading away. The car drives on. Music: Mozart – Piano Sonata No. 8 in A minor, K.310 : I. Allegro Maestoso.)

- Monkey's Mother : Come on Jimbo, the castle life is over! We're heading to a smaller place now... (immense sadness in her voice) We'll need courage! Not just you, Jimbo, huh Tomi? You'll need it the most!
- Tomi (5 years old) : seems unaware and just sucks on his pacifier
- Ace (17 years old) : turns around, smiling at his brothers We're BROKE, you wimps! SO no whining and behave!
- Mother : Ace, please stop!
- Ace : turns back to the front and puts his feet on the car's edge Whatever you say, mom! But the luxury's done, we'll have to tighten our belts...
- Father (driving) : Ace, stop jinxing us, will you? Dad will make a comeback, like Napoleon's retreat in '18...
- Ace : pretends to fall asleep, making Monkey and Tomi laugh
- Father (annoyed) : You little rebel Ace! I hope you pass your bac, Ace, or I won't know what to do with you... (Ace keeps snoring) Tsss... I'll turn up the volume, Mozart will calm me...
- (The music rises, and the camera zooms out to show the French countryside, the highway, traffic jams! The family devours McDonald's in the car... The car nears Paris, the Eiffel Tower comes into view.)
- Ace's voice-over : as he spots the Eiffel Tower I can't take your MOZART anymore, (he shouts :) PANTERRAAAA!
- Monkey (voice-over) : Oh no, not your savage music again!
- (Tomi claps. Ace switches to Pantera "Cowboys from Hell" on the CD player.)
- (The car drives through the poor suburbs of 93 – poverty and dirt are visible... It arrives at a rundown, graffiti-covered house, a cité behind it. A burned car carcass sits in the parking spot.)
- Father : Turn off your music, Ace! (the music stops) This is it, our home now.
- Mother (holding back sobs) : Let's go inside...
- (The family gets out, and a close-up shows Monkey curiously eyeing the burned car. Ace notices and approaches him.)
- Ace : So, zombie? Not too scared? Of living with the poor?
- Monkey : smiling Me, scared? You're joking! I think this place is... Cool! As long as I've got my Nintendo 64, I'm good. No fear... How about a Golden Eye match, please!!!
- Ace : smiles back Tonight, zombie. Come on, let's explore our new house, mom said there's a basement! I can rehearse with my DEATH band, hehe! Coming?
- Monkey : Nah, don't play your barbarian music!
- (Ace starts running, the first to the basement picks the room! He runs toward the house.)
- Monkey : Heyyy Wait!!! follows running and enters through the rusty, dilapidated small door into the house.

INTRODUCTION WHITE MIRROR

(Loki's music. Background audio messages synced with images: "An empire upon an empire...", "Citizen Kane" (New York skyscrapers), "It's a Revolution!" (Steve Jobs), "billions of users" (Mexico City), "government lose their mind" (Twin Towers), "Aujourd'hui j'irai dormir chez vous!" (Antoine de Maximy filming), "...No precedents, since 1789..." (Versailles), "(elderly Algerian voice): Welcome to my home, brother. Are you hungry?" (slums), "Power to the people", "Housing for all!", "Hollywood burns: hundreds of stars homeless", "I had a dream!" (peace sign), "What's money?" (child's voice), "IKEA!", "What's war?" (child's voice), "What's peace?". At the end, Yoda's voice: "Long time I have waited for this moment: the D.ream meets D.Truth". Final message: "Everything related is inspired by D.Truth, all characters are pure... divine... coincidence. The events have not occurred... yet. It's up to you to make those truths and nourish this peaceful dream." White Mirror intro.)

Scene 2: 25 Years After the Announcement – Palestine

(Abandoned factory somewhere in Palestine, night. Said, 15, hides behind a window, wearing black sunglasses and camouflage, holding a Kalashnikov. Bombs and gunfire are heard outside. Said fires intermittently, switching windows, moving back and forth. Taking cover, he contacts his teammates.)

- Said : This is Silent Mudjadin to Death Fennec.
- Death Fennec : modified voice imitating Stallone Death Fennec, I'm in the violet zone, the globalist fascist dogs are everywhere... (interrupted by gunfire)... I'm spotted... BIPP computer voice Death Fennec Has been killed....
- Said : NOOO!! Damn it... ugh, I'll have to finish this alone.
- (A shadow appears behind him. It descends from the ceiling on a rope, wielding a knife. The figure approaches and raises the knife... Said reacts in time, seeing his reflection in the window.)
- Said : The MOSSAD! (he prepares to shoot, but the black-clad assassin strikes the gun, making him drop it. However, Said manages to turn the fight. A combat scene ensues, they end up on the ground, the assassin tries an arm lock but fails, they keep struggling. Then Said pulls out a grenade! He pulls the pin, and the assassin immediately lets go. Said smiles and drops it, holding the panicked fighter... Just as the grenade is about to explode.)*
- (Suddenly a thumb appears, a hologram of two women materializes. The two fighters look at each other and laugh... they both remove their glasses. The environment is revealed to be completely different – clean, no bullet marks, etc. The weapons disappear. Their clothes change, revealing Said and Benjamin, 16 years old, in their real outfits.)
- Said's Mother : With Salomé, we knew you were messing around with your D.ream Station!
- Salomé (Benjamin's mother) : seems to watch a video of their fight Benchou! You don't use ropes like that! It's dangerous! (Ben starts to reply but) Let me speak! I know you'll say it's perfectly safe with the AIs and the DT suits supposed to be super secure! BUT I DON'T TRUST THESE THINGS! You could've gotten seriously hurt! NO D.ream Station for 1 month!
- Said's Mother : Same punishment, Said!
- (The two teens protest, disgusted.)
- Salomé : GET HOME NOW, or we call the Karma...
- Benjamin and Said together : Yes!
- Benjamin's Mother : AND BE CAREFUL! Anyway, your scooters are capped.

- (Music: Instrumental Mint Tea – La Caution. The two friends rush out of the factory. They race to start their levitating scooters. They take off fast. Landscapes of a rich, fertile Palestine: robots and humans work the fields. Elegant buildings (cathedral-level finishing) serve as farms. Grand temples, in harmony with nature, dot the path of the two teens. A scene shows a temple construction site in the countryside: robots and men coordinate the work. Ten-meter stones float. Robots sculpt massive blocks with lasers into columns... The arrival at Jerusalem at night is dazzling: the boys stand high to view the city... and it displays: JERUSALEM, IS... then "IS" fades, replaced by: JERUSALEM, N.U.S.A. - 25 Years After Announce. The city is green, permaculture everywhere.)
- Music ends.

 (Transition at Said's house where he has invited Benjamin and his sister Rachel: Said's house is very large - 300 m² - with a big garden and an atrium, all convivial and very clean. There's a sense of wealth but no opulence. The children Mammoud 12 years old, Alya 15 years old, Rachel - BenJ's sister - 13 years old, Benjamin 16 years old, Said 15 years old, and the grandpa - 70 years old - of Mammoud, Alya, and Said are sitting on the grass - except Papi Momo - in a circle in the atrium, focused on a holographic screen displaying DTMap.)

- Said : zooms with his fingers on the hologram There, there's a marble quarry. Good for the stairs!
- Papi Momo : DTMap is something else, back in my day we had Googl... and it was pretty lame compared to DTMap. You kids are lucky.
- Alya : laughs Yes, Papi Millennial! (teasing) You wanna buy Coca-Cola on AMAZON!
- (Everyone bursts out laughing)
- Papi Momo : AMAZON... I'd forgotten that name... no need to remember the dark times of our history... Let's get back to our Dream, kids! So, we've got the marble?
- Benjamin : Yes, we need some gold for the energy...
- Said (teasing) : Gold, huh, you Ben Ghighi? (smiles) Ring a bell?
- Benjamin : smiles too You damn islamo-terrorist! You wanna blow yourself up to finally lose your virginity!
- Rachel : Nice one, Benji! That's cheating, Said! Be patient! Maybe one day a very nearsighted girl will want you!
- Alya : But my brother's handsome!! Ohhh Rachel, I'm sure that... (she seems to realize something but quickly recovers) NO, nothing to do, you're really not that good-looking Said (laughs)!
- Said : I get it, it's because women don't interest me... not yet. I want to save myself for the soul... (he sees the others holding back laughter) Hey! You're making fun of me!
- (Everyone laughs, Said blushes)
- Papi Momo : Oh my children, you're so funny. You see Said, that's called Karma... you made a racist joke and the consequence is we gently tease you about your virginity... Oh! That's a sensitive topic, I see... Recess is over, kids! Let's keep working on our project: "The Wonderful Flying University of Jerusalem"!
- Benjamin : Okay, so we need to finish listing the different materials needed for the construction. Once that's done, we can make a first budget estimate. Then we can submit the project for approval by the DTC members. It's just the beginning, friends! Building an artificial island 20 km wide could take centuries or even millennia!

- Mammoud : We're doing this for future generations. We start dreaming, and our dream will come true for our grandchildren's children... that's cool anyway!
- (The group approves)
- Benjamin : Alright, let's check our construction. D.IA Dreamstation?
- Harmonious voice : Yes, Super D.?
- Benjamin : Load the representations of the D.ream City project, code name: Jerusalem rebirth.
- (The hologram displays a set of harmonious buildings built around a huge garden. It's all represented in Lego)
- Benjamin : Oops! Switch to reality mode please, Dream...
- Dreamstation voice : Right away.
- (The construction appears in realistic miniature. Benjamin approaches the hologram and starts handling the tower with his special glove, revealing the interior. Everything is furnished, and even people are represented. Benjamin zooms in on a room where young adults practice martial arts. He zooms out to show the garden and its huge vegetable patch.)
- Papi Momo : amazed I could stay in this hologram for hours... D.IA Mimi?
- (A hologram of an old woman appears)
- Old woman's voice : Yes, my love?
- Papi Momo : It always moves me to hear your voice, my love... I know you're just an AI... well, Mimi. Can you tell me how long this project would take?
- IA Mimi : One moment, my love. (after a search) With current technology, for the ground construction I'd say 3 to 5 years. For the floating part, at least 100 years before we improve our understanding of ethereal energy.
- Papi Momo : Thank you, Mimi Darling, have a good afternoon!
- IA Mimi : You're welcome, Momo Dear (she winks) to you too.
- (She disappears)
- Papi Momo : Incredible, such a construction in 3 years? That's crazy! Well done, kids! You have so much imagination, it's beautiful! Who would've known 30 years ago that imagination would be the main quality a human needs. In my day, to "succeed" you needed money! Oh, you don't know what I've been through...
- Alya : Yes, it was tough what you went through, Papi, we all watch the history of the defeated, you know...
- Papi Momo : Yes I know my little flower, I'm just happy you're so much better educated than before. I thank Allah for answering my prayers. Isn't that right, Said, "the fortunate one"?
- Said : Yeah, I'm fortunate (he laughs). And I'm glad you're happy, Papy. How about we build you something?
- Papi Momo : Oh, you know I don't need anything. (the kids insist) Okay, a pasta necklace.
- Mammoud : Come on, pick something cooler...
- Papi Momo : Surprise me...
- Said : So please Papi, leave us so we can discuss the gift.
- Papi Momo : stands and walks toward the house. Despite his 70 years, Papi is still very athletic: he looks like he's 50... I'll go to the vegetable garden, to help.

(Jack Chorac, then mayor of Paris, jumps a metro turnstile but the scene continues as a Karma Police robot appears.)

- Jack Chorac : What is this devilry?
- Robot : Hello citizen, I come from the future and I am a RATP Bot. How I got here? Too long to explain! May I see your...
- Chorac : From the future? RATP Bot! That's preposterous! Am I the victim of one of our comedians' pranks?
- Robot : I am a RATP robot enforcing the law, not a clown. May I see your transport ticket please?
- Chorac : intrigued by the robot's modernity Well, my young robotic friend. (smiles) Tell me, who will win next year's presidential election?
- Robot : laughs... very human I can't say... for temporal coherence reasons. Don't try to dodge the issue, citizen!
- Chorac : laughs too I am still the mayor of Paris...
- Robot : You are an ordinary citizen. Your transport ticket please. In case of non-presentation of the requested ticket, I will be forced to impose a fine of 6000 new Francs, fines are calculated based on inflation...
- (Police gather around the bot.)
- Chorac : This is absurd! Gentlemen! Do what's necessary...
- (The police prepare to shoot the robot.)
- Robot : Hostile threats detected.
- (The guns are released from the policemen's hands. The weapons deform to bind the officers who were about to shoot. The policemen all fall to the ground, tied up.)
- Robot : Threats neutralized. Citizens! You each must pay 100,000 new Francs for attempted assassination of a RATP agent... and citizen Chorac, 106,000 new Francs for non-presentation of a transport ticket and attack on an agent.
- Chorac : stunned I... I had a transport ticket!
- Robot : impatient I've heard that one before! Come on citizen... You must pay! We accept all payment types.
- Chorac : And if I don't pay now?
- RATP : I would be forced to castrate you...
- Chorac : BUT FROM WHAT ERA DO YOU COME? YOU ARE SAVAGES!
- RATP Bot : These are the laws in effect in Paris in my time...
- Chorac : My God, what a dreadful future... I must think of myself first: I'll pay! Do you accept cash?
- Robot : very kindly But of course...
- Chorac : That's a sum, Charles??
- (Charles Passerien approaches the mayor of Paris.)
- Chorac : Give the money to this kind robot please...
- Charles (with a strong accent) : But Jack, you know this is for the business we have...
- Chorac : Don't argue, give him the money!
- (Charles reluctantly hands over a black briefcase to the robot. The robot opens it, filled with bills, takes the required amount, and returns the briefcase.)
- RATP Bot : Thank you for your cooperation. Next time, don't forget to validate your transport ticket...
- Chorac : Oh SHI...
- (Image freezes.)

- Female voice-over : That would have been the future of the RATP, if our little group of concerned citizens... hadn't intervened... See you soon, on White Mirror...
- (Transition to message: "This is a message from the Gentlemen of Lupin...")
- End of ad.

GAULOISE AD

(Black background. Piano music.)

- Voice-over : Nowadays, vacations don't spark the same enthusiasm as before. (images of crowded beaches, monstrous traffic jams, then recent images of empty beaches, abandoned mountain villages, closing shops.)
- Jean-Marc (voice-over) : My name is Jean-Marc and I'm 55 years old... damn... I'm married, father of 4 kids, and before the announcement I was a self-employed entrepreneur with my wife. We ran a campsite in the Landes with my family. (Images of a younger Jean-Marc and his wife managing the campsite.) And I really worked with my family on that place for 20 years... My specialty was pizza! You should try my Landes special... it's delicious... (Jean-Marc is seen smiling, making wood-fired pizzas.) But then Covid changed everything. (Jean-Marc and his wife are seen closing the campsite, disheartened...) We still managed to recover when things picked up. (Jean-Marc and his wife resume service as customers arrive.) Well, we thought we had... Then you know the story... economic crises, wars, the second pandemic, the digital euro... (images of the events he describes.) Man, it quickly became impossible to make a living... (Scene where he has to put up a "PERMANENTLY CLOSED" sign.) I was 50, what were we going to do? My family and I? I even sent a message to Kitchen Nightmares for help... pfff nothing... it was tough, I won't hide it...
- (Transition to Jean-Marc sitting by the Maldives beach, wearing a Hawaiian shirt, sunglasses, and his wife in a beach outfit with a shawl and hat, etc...)
- Jean-Marc and Wife : Hi!
- Wife : We didn't know what to do, we were really desperate. It's true. But the miracle happened! One of my sons told us about the Dream Truth Community!
- Jean-Marc : And that was the revelation! Now my wife and I are two anonymous Dream Truth Explorers. (Statistics for Jean-Marc and his wife appear: [Anonymous "Jean-Marc" DT Explorers, Truth ID honor, Reputation value: 4,500,225 $D.Worth, Rank: Sadhaka] [Anonymous "Jeanne" DT Explorers, Truth ID honor, Reputation value: 4,834,000 $D.Worth, Rank: Sadhaka]) It's been 5 years that my wife and I have been exploring the world, free from the constraints of old institutions! (image of the couple traveling worldwide.)
- Wife (voice-over) : We'd really like to thank the DT Travel Agency. (DT Travel logo then back to Maldives.)
- Jean-Marc : Yes, thanks to the DT Travel Agency. The travel agency that lets you travel and explore at will. Thanks to them, I'm on vacation all year... hehe!
- Wife : That doesn't mean we don't work anymore, my husband and I. If you want to visit the Landes or spend your holidays, find our services on the DT Travel platform. All you need is a Truth ID and a minimum Sadhaka rank to work at the agency.
- Jean-Marc : Yes, join us!
- Philippe Etchebaise (in a casual shirt, straw hat, sunglasses, and beach mocktail appears) : Yes, join us, over 1,000,000 people travel and explore daily thanks to DT Travel!

- Jean-Marc : Well, boss, you came too! Back in Top Chef days, we'd never have met you!
- (They laugh and hug, then link arms.)
- Philippe : looks at the camera See you soon and happy travels!
- End of ad.

Scene 3: The Children's Gift

(At Benjamin's, a lavish dinner shared between Said's and Benjamin's families. The dinner unfolds on a beautiful summer evening in the harmonious garden of the 300 m² house. About forty people are present. Benjamin, laughing with Said beside him, stands up and taps his glass with a spoon.)

- Benjamin : Friends, family! Thank you for being here... the last time was... two weeks ago... an eternity. It always warms my heart to be together, sharing life... We have differences, but that's what unites us. Anyway, I'm speaking up because we have a surprise for Papi Momo!
- Papi Momo : laughs Oh, I forgot! Go ahead, surprise me! I bet you made me another little treehouse.
- Said : We're not giving you the same thing twice! That'd be an insult to our teen imagination!
- (Laughter)
- Benjamin : Truth Bot! Bring the box!
- (Truth Bot arrives at the center of the gathering, followed by a huge box wrapped in paper that levitates. The imposing box lands in the garden's center. Papi stands to unwrap the gift.)
- Papi Momo : Well, that's a nice cube! But what could be inside? (he touches the gift and the block's walls turn transparent, revealing a 2003 Ferrari Enzo inside) By Allah! A FERRARI???
- Mammoud : Yup, a Ferrari, Papi!
- Alya : AND the coolest part is we only ordered the parts, it's ALL OF US who'll help you build it!!!
- Benjamin : So, what do you think, Papi Momo?
- Papi Momo : teary-eyed I'm more of a Porsche guy...
- (Laughter)
- END of episode.
- (Music: MC Abdule - Palestine. Credits, episode images, etc...)

Post-Credit Scene

- Jack Chorac : My dear compatriots and all citizens, good evening. I am Jack Chorac and I was President of the French Republic from 1995 to 2007 after Jules Caesar! I am, which may seem strange or even preposterous, deceased on September 26, 2019. That's why everything I will reveal to you is the strict truth. I haven't always lived solely for France's interest, but rather for my own. I'm no saint and I've committed many crimes. Nevertheless, even dead, I can assure you I still love France... but also Japan, Palestine, Russia... And the project I will develop next, I hope, will restore some credibility to a France that desperately needs it. This project was naturally initiated by the Dream Truth Community, familiarly known as the DTC.

The name of this project is: (fade to black) "The Return of Beauxbâtons". (Harry Potter main theme plays.)
