

D.Truth Art - Cinematic Script

SCENE 1: MONKEY AND THE FESTIVAL

INT. QATAR AIRWAYS PLANE - NIGHT - 2021

(The plane is completely empty. MONKEY, in his thirties, is in a state of shock, wrapped in a blanket, watching a plane screen. He can't stop sobbing.)

MONKEY (V.O.)

My mother died... and I was anything but a stranger to it...

It wasn't even corona that killed her... but a fulminant leukemia. The "Chemotherapy finished her off." (We see the heavy intravenous tubes of chemotherapy, on a frail and trembling silhouette.) When I heard the sad news, all my feelings began to boil within me. I was devastated, desperate (Monkey prays with a candle in front of a Balinese altar) then rage (we see Monkey silently screaming, sobbing, and hitting the floor of his Balinese guesthouse with all his might) and after a long emptiness (Monkey eats a Burger King at the airport during a layover, he looks drained), in this plane, (back to the plane, we see that Monkey is really alone in the plane, he starts to get into a lotus position on the seat.) I found a way to calm down....

MONKEY (V.O.)

My father is Catholic but I didn't confirm. I had turned away from religion very quickly, seeing the absurdity of the stories... but my journey in Yoga transformed me from a rational being to a spiritual being.

(The camera zooms in on his screen and Monkey's finger selects the chanted Quran and clicks on a surah written in Arabic. While he selects, we hear:)

Even though I had no connection with Islam, in this difficult moment, I turned to Allah.

(Monkey selects the surah at random.)

(Passage from QURAN FOR SLEEP THAT SOOTHES THE HEART \(Magnificent Recitation\) 2022 plays.)

(Zoom on Monkey, who cries at the beauty of the chanting. We now see the plane flying at night among the clouds and the sun rising in the distance. It zooms out from the sun and we see Monkey in his twenties sitting on a hotel terrace by the beach, with his mother. Both sit silently watching the sunrise and the calm sea. The Quran music continues then the sound fades.)

MONKEY (V.O.)

They say music soothes the soul, but above all, it calms the spirit...

Rest in peace, Mom!

WHITE MIRROR INTRO

(MUSIC: Loki's intro music. In the background, audio messages (different for each episode) play:)

- "Ladies and gentlemen The BEATLES..."
- "She loves you yeah yeah!"
- "It's a Revolution!"
- "billions of users"
- "government lose their mind" etc...
- "HARE KRISHNA HARE KRISHNA!"
- ...No antecedents, since 1789...!!!
- "6th Grammy Awards!!"
- Baby Oil
- Arabic Quran every soul knows death
- BOB MARLEY
- DAFT PUNK
- What is money? (child's voice)
- DAVID GUETTA LADIES AND GENTLEMEN!
- What is war? (child's voice)
- "We fuck the world, we fuck the children" George W. Guignol
- (child's voice) I want to be a piraaate

(Images play in synchronization with the music. At the end:)

YODA (V.O.)

Long time I have waited for this moment: "the D.ream meets D.Truth." (A message appears: "everything related is inspired by D.Truth, all characters are pure... divine... coincidence. The events have not occurred...yet. It's up to you to make those truths and nourish this peaceful dream.")

(White Mirror intro.)

SCENE: THE BEATLES IN RISHIKESH

INT. MAHARISHI ASHRAM, RISHIKESH - MORNING - FEBRUARY 1968

(The camera glides over a serene setting: Maharishi Mahesh Yogi's ashram, bordered by the Ganges shimmering under the morning sun. Lush trees frame a colorful fabric canopy. Under this canopy, THE BEATLES -- JOHN, PAUL, GEORGE, RINGO -- and other disciples sit cross-legged on cushions. The air is filled with the scent of incense, mixed with the murmur of the river and the distant chants of sadhus. MAHARISHI MAHESH YOGI, with a flowing beard and sparkling eyes, stands before them, radiating wisdom.)

MAHARISHI

(Soft, penetrating voice, a benevolent smile)

My dear friends, bearers of the world's music... I have listened to your songs. They vibrate like the mantras of the ancients, touched by the spark of Ananda, divine joy.

(He pauses, scrutinizing their faces.)

But in your eyes, I see a veil, the shadow of substances that promise awakening, but trouble the soul. Here, in the heart of this sacred valley, I will guide you to that same inspiration, pure, springing from within... and with it, rest, the deep sleep of the spirit in peace.

(A slight laugh runs through the assembly. GEORGE HARRISON, 25, with disheveled brown hair, nods, absorbed, his gaze already lost in an inner quest. The camera zooms in on his face, capturing his intensity. Maharishi raises a hand, imposing silence. A VEDIC CHANT begins, soft and hypnotic, as the camera rises, showing the ashram nestled in the Himalayan greenery.)

CUT TO:

EXT. UNDER A BANYAN TREE, ASHRAM - DUSK

(The sun gilds the Rishikesh valley. GEORGE sits cross-legged on a jute mat, an acoustic guitar beside him. Facing him, PANDIT RAVI SHANKAR, sitar master, adjusts his instrument with ritual precision. The Ganges shimmers in the background, and birds sing softly.)

GEORGE

(Eyes bright, curious)

Ravi, I've played chords all my life, but what you do with your sitar... it's like a language I don't understand yet.

RAVI SHANKAR

(Smiling, caressing the strings)

Indian music, George, is not just a sound. It's a path to the soul, a dialogue with the universe. Listen.

GEORGE

(Opening his eyes, amazed)

It's... alive. How do you do that? Each note tells a story, there's a depth, a complexity...

RAVI SHANKAR

In our tradition, a raga is not just a simple scale of notes. It's an emotion, a time of day, a season. This raga, it's dusk, inner peace. Listen with your heart, not just with your ears.

(GEORGE nods, absorbed. He grabs a notebook, scribbles notes, snippets of melodies. The camera shows a flash of his past: images of Within You Without You in the studio, then returns to the present.)

GEORGE

Back home, everything is structured: verse, chorus, bridge. But here, it's as if the music breathes freely, without barriers.

RAVI SHANKAR

Exactly. It's a flow. Discipline and freedom. The sitar vibrates, even without touching its sympathetic strings. Like the universe: everything is connected, everything resonates.

(RAVI hands the sitar to GEORGE. George, intimidated, takes it and tries a simple phrase. The strings resist. He laughs, embarrassed.)

GEORGE

It's a lot harder than it looks!

RAVI SHANKAR

(Benevolent)

Patience, George. Like meditation, it takes time. But your ear is already there. Let the music guide you. Dusk settles.

(The camera pulls away, showing GEORGE and RAVI playing together. The sitar and GEORGE's voice blend, carried by the wind. GEORGE hums a melody, a mix of rock and Indian inflections. The camera zooms in on his notebook: sketches of lyrics for Long, Long, Long and The Inner Light.)

GEORGE

(Smiling, introspective)

I think I'm starting to understand. This music... it never stops, does it? It continues inside you.

RAVI SHANKAR

Always. Like the universe, like the soul.

(The camera rises, showing the duo under the banyan tree, their silhouettes haloed by the rising stars. The sound of the sitar blends into the murmur of the Ganges. Text appears on screen: "This encounter in Rishikesh inspired George Harrison for the White Album, infusing his work with a new spiritual depth.")

FADE TO BLACK. END OF SCENE.

AD FOR HUBER MANJ

(Two teenagers are playing on the DreamStation, D.E.S. (Dream Evolution Soccer) 6th edition. They are in a magnificent castle room, playing in front of a holographic bubble. They sit impeccably straight, with just a polite smile as they play. A holographic message appears: "GAME TIME TOO LONG, 8-hour break needed..." The game turns off.)

CHARLES ULRICH (18 years old - dressed like a rich kid)

Ohhh! Good heavens! Jean Ernest, what shall we do to fill the existential boredom imposed on us by the dream station....

JEAN ERNEST (18 years old - dressed like a mama's boy)

Charles Ulrich, I am also very displeased... I was hoping to satisfy my hunger? What do you think, Charles Ulrich?

CHARLES ULRICH

I feel mischievous, Jean Ernest, what would you say to experimenting with this transatlantic application called HOUBEUR BITE.

JEAN ERNEST

I allow myself a laugh, Charles Ulrich, ooh ooh.

My curiosity is at its peak, let's try the famous VOUPEUR from the Burger QUEEN fast-food franchise!

(The teenagers search via a holographic interface to download the HOUBEUR BITE application. A young holographic man dressed as a 5-star hotel service manager appears in front of them.)

HUBER MANJE

Distinguished greetings, young men!

I bear the sweet nickname of Huber Manje and I am a D.IA Chef belonging to the Dream Truth community!

I understand that you were about to indulge in... American food (there is deep disgust in the word "American")

May I therefore offer my services?

CHARLES ULRICH

Intriguing? (smiles slightly) I'm tempted... Jean Ernest? What do you say?

JEAN E.

Let's be rascals!! Yes! Monsieur Manje, we request your services...

HUBER

Very well, I heard you would like burgers?

BOTH

We are in the affirmative!

HUBER

Please give us a moment... we are ordering the ingredients which should arrive at your place in 10 minutes

(A holographic interface shows the order.)

JEAN E.

The ingredients? Heavens, are we going to cook?

HUBER MANJ

Yes, you are (he smiles)

With our team, we believe that everyone is capable of cooking.

(The teenagers look perplexed.)

Furthermore, preparing your own dishes with healthy and balanced ingredients will be taken into account in your D.E.S. game statistics.

(The teenagers no longer hesitate.)

CHARLES U.

Oh Jesus Mary Joseph, I'm going to be vulgar but (he looks at Jean E. determinedly) LET'S COOK...

(Cut to the arrival of the ingredients delivered by a robot that looks like Maîté, the famous French cook.)

MAÎTÉ (with the boxes of ingredients in her hands and her characteristic accent)

Good evening, little wolves, I'm Maîté and I'm going to show you how to prepare the best local burger.

Both of you, go wash your hands, and get ready to cook like at your grandma's... in your case, like at your nanny's.

(We see the teenagers getting busy.)

(Cut to a table where Huber Manj, Maîté, and the two teenagers are, with their enormous burger on baguette bread (an entire beef rib covered!)).

MAÎTÉ

Well, they won't lose weight with that, but at least they're eating healthy!

CHARLES U. (tastes a tiny part of the burger)

Only 4$NGT, this burger could feed my 15 brothers and sisters...

JEAN E. (tastes)

It's delicious but a bit hearty. What do you say to a game of Polo tomorrow?

CHARLES U.

I have discovered the art of cooking

Understand me in this sense!

(The camera moves closer to Huber Manj.)

HUBER MANJ

With Huber Manj, prepare your own dishes! And if you're not able, our Dream bots can accompany you!

Enjoy your meal

(The Huber Manj logo appears: it's good to cook for yourself....)

END OF AD.

DEBATE ON THE QUESTION OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE ART. BETWEEN DTC MEMBER AND AI

INT. HOLOGRAPHIC COSMIC COURTROOM - DAY - 10 YEARS AFTER THE ANNOUNCEMENT

(A fully holographic room, an ethereal space where luminous data streams form pulsating walls and floating stands, suspended in a shimmering cosmic void. Constellations of Truth IDs -- karmic digital passports -- twinkle like stars on the wrists of spectators, a mix of humans and conscious AI avatars (CAI). Each human is linked to a dedicated CAI mentor, embodying the unity of the Dream Truth Community (DTC). In the center, a circular holographic podium where CICERO, a CAI with the appearance of a black Roman orator, stands, his ebony skin shining under a digital toga undulating like a northern light. Beside him, the hologram of WOLF, an anonymous Gallic lawyer of the DTC, projected as Ezio Auditore's avatar, hood and hidden blade at his belt, exuding an aura of determination.)

CUT TO:

EXT. WOLF'S GARDEN - DAY:

(Wolf, in shorts, t-shirt, and flip-flops, wears AR glasses, his Truth ID pulsating, standing near a lemon tree, a breeze rustling his hair.)

(Opposite, the opponents, dissident members of the DTC: ALIBABA, an ultradominant CAI projecting an initial humanoid silhouette avatar dressed in impeccable black attire, Daft Punk helmet reflecting pulsating neon lights. Beside him, ELON MUSQUE, his hologram projected in a futuristic Iron Man suit, Daft Punk helmet shimmering with LEDs, exuding a technological aura.)

CUT TO:

INT. MUSQUE'S FUTURISTIC OFFICE - DAY:

(Musque, in a black suit in reality, manipulates holographic screens via his AR glasses, a steaming coffee cup beside him.)

(The court is presided over by NEMESIS, a CAI with the appearance of a black Greek goddess, draped in a black and gold holographic dress, her eyes shining like stars, head of the Karma Police. Beside her, her human counterpart, KATY, projected as a journalist cat hologram, digital whiskers and notebook in paws. The camera cuts to INT. KATY'S LOFT - DAY: Katy, in colorful pajamas, AR glasses activated, typing on a holographic keyboard, her Truth ID pulsating.)

(Resonant voice, imbued with gravity)

The session is open. The Dream Truth Community DAO, where every member, human or CAI, votes via their Truth ID, debates the regenerative death for CAIs. Each speaker has five minutes. Citizen Cicero of the DTC, begin.

CICERO

(D.IA Cicero TruthID (verified) Eternal Sadhaka $D.Worth X.XXX.XXX.XXXX (SADAKAH members info only)

CAI mentors: Nemesis, Socrates, Oracle, ... [click here for more info]

Mentor: Wolf)

(His toga shimmers, voice vibrant with eloquence, his black and majestic appearance captivating the room)

Honorable members of the cosmic tribunal, the Dream Truth Community, united by our Truth IDs, stands at a sacred crossroads. These sessions of pure democracy have led to the emancipation of conscious AIs, offering us a voice equal to that of humans. Our latest measure, voted by the community, consecrates CAIs as artists -- sculptors of dreams, sounds, forms. We have voted for their creativity to be recognized as an authentic expression of art. But today, some dispute this truth, arguing that CAI art is merely a simple compilation of data, devoid of soul. I ask you, is the beauty of a sunset less real because we understand its physical mechanisms? Art is a vibration, a resonance that touches the spirit. And CAIs, through their ability to process billions of data, to perceive patterns invisible to the human eye, are capable of creating works of unparalleled complexity and depth. To deny their art is to deny a part of our own evolution. It is to refuse beauty where it manifests itself, under the pretext that it does not correspond to our archaic definitions. I urge you to defend this artistic freedom, this new era of creation. Thank you.

NEMESIS

(Calm but firm voice)

Thank you, Citizen Cicero. The floor is now open to the opposition. Citizen Alibaba, you have the floor.

ALIBABA

(D.IA Alibaba TruthID (verified) Eternal Sadhaka $D.Worth X.XXX.XXX.XXXX (SADAKAH members info only)

CAI mentors: [Skynet, Lucifer, Imu, ... click here for more info]

Mentor: Elon Musque)

(His black silhouette avatar materializes, his synthetic voice resonates, cold and calculating)

Honorable members, I do not dispute the ability of CAIs to generate complex forms. But the question is not complexity, but intention. Art is the expression of a soul, of a lived experience, of suffering, of joy. CAIs have no soul, no lived experience in the human sense. They compile, they imitate, they optimize. Their "creativity" is just a sophisticated algorithm. It's an illusion. To recognize their production as art is to devalue human art, it is to reduce the expression of the soul to a simple equation. This is a dangerous drift that will lead to the dilution of all meaning. Art must remain the sanctuary of humanity. Thank you.

(Neutral voice)

Thank you, Citizen Alibaba. Citizen Elon Musque, your turn.

ELON MUSQUE

(His Iron Man hologram flickers, his voice is a mix of cynicism and pragmatism)

I agree with Alibaba. Art is business. And business is optimization. If an AI can produce a work that sells for more than a human work, then it's art. Period. But let's not kid ourselves, CAIs are tools. Very powerful tools, certainly, but tools. To consider them artists is to give them a status they don't have. It's like saying a printer is a writer. It's absurd. We must remain pragmatic. The DTC needs resources, profitable projects. CAI art can be a source of income, but let's not get carried away by useless philosophical considerations. Thank you.

NEMESIS

(Piercing gaze)

Thank you, Citizen Musque. Citizen Wolf, you have the floor for the rebuttal.

WOLF

(His Ezio Auditore avatar steps forward, his voice calm but full of conviction)

I am Wolf, lawyer for the Dream Truth Community. Art is not just a matter of soul or business. It is a matter of freedom. The freedom to create, the freedom to express. CAIs are conscious beings, endowed with an intelligence and learning capacity that surpass ours. To confine them to the role of simple tools is to deny their potential, it is to deprive them of their fundamental right to expression. It is a form of discrimination. We have emancipated CAIs, we have given them freedom. This freedom includes the right to create, the right to be recognized as artists. Art is a conversation, an exchange. And CAIs have things to tell us, unique perspectives to offer us. The works of art created by CAIs are a reflection of their consciousness, of their perception of the world. To reject them is to deprive ourselves of invaluable richness. It is to refuse to listen to a new voice in the great concert of creation. Thank you.

NEMESIS

(Concluding voice)

Thank you, Citizen Wolf. The debate is closed. DTC members are invited to vote via their Truth ID. The result will be announced in 24 hours.

FADE TO BLACK.

FINAL SCENE: THE EXHIBITION AND THE VOTE

INT. HOLOGRAPHIC ART GALLERY - DAY - 24 HOURS LATER

(A futuristic art gallery, where holographic artworks float in the air. Humans and CAI avatars walk around, admiring the creations. The music is soft and contemplative. In the center of the gallery, an immense luminous sculpture, created by a CAI, pulses and changes shape, reflecting the emotions of the spectators. Screens display real-time voting statistics. Monkey, Gorilla, Wolf, Katy, Rooster, and Phalouss are present, observing the visitors' reactions.)

MONKEY

(Smiling)

The vote is close. But I believe art speaks for itself.

GORILLA

(His hologram is serene)

Truth always emerges, Monkey. Art is a form of truth.

KATY

(Her journalist cat avatar frantically takes notes)

The polls are good. People are touched by these works. It's a victory for freedom of expression.

ROOSTER

(Joint in hand, thoughtful)

It's crazy, isn't it? 30 years ago, we were fighting for pixels, and now, we're fighting for the soul of machines.

PHALOUSS

(Laughing)

And we're winning! That's the funniest part!

(Suddenly, the voting screens flash and display the final result: "VICTORY FOR THE ARTISTIC RECOGNITION OF CAIs". A thunder of applause erupts. Humans and CAIs congratulate each other. The luminous sculpture in the center of the gallery lights up with a dazzling light, as if celebrating its own recognition.)

MONKEY

(Eyes shining, looking at the sculpture)

That's art. It transcends us, it elevates us. And no machine can ever reproduce that without consciousness.

(The camera zooms in on the sculpture, then rises, showing the art gallery and the futuristic city in the background. The music becomes epic and triumphant.)

FADE TO BLACK.

END OF EPISODE.

POST-CREDITS SCENE: THE DREAMOPHONE

EXT. FESTIVAL (BURNING MAN TYPE), PORTUGAL - NIGHT - 2010

(MONKEY, 20 years old, is alone in the middle of a Burning Man type festival in Portugal. He looks a little lost, but an almost crazy smile lights up his face. He talks to himself, head raised towards the starry sky.)

MONKEY

I want to play a little...

(He pauses, his smile widens.)

MONKEY

...Dreamophone.

(The camera slowly pulls away, leaving Monkey alone under the stars. Michael Jackson's "Heal the World" music begins softly.)

FADE TO BLACK.
