TITLE: WHITE MIRROR - EPISODE 6: KARMA POLICE

VOICE OVER (KIT KAT, THE THAI MONK)

Listen, Jim, Karma works like this...

EXT. STREET IN A VILLAGE IN NORTHERN THAILAND - DAY

Monkey, in his twenties, messy hair, walks alone in a street lined with T-shirt stalls. The place is strangely empty. He examines the clothes, calls out for the seller, but no one responds.

VOICE OVER (KIT KAT)

Take the example of a thief...

Monkey looks left and right, then hastily stuffs a T-shirt into his bag and walks away quickly.

VOICE OVER (KIT KAT)

When he steals, he commits a bad action, and the law of Karma ensures that this bad action...

CUT TO:

EXT. YOUTH HOSTEL - NIGHT

Monkey exits his hostel, wearing the stolen T-shirt. He walks smiling through the lively street food streets of Chiang Mai, under Thai night lights.

VOICE OVER (KIT KAT)

... will generate consequences that will, one day or another, impact the thief. In this case, the first consequence is that the police will search for him, then arrest him. That's how Karma works.

Monkey takes a photo of the surroundings when a huge pigeon dropping falls on his T-shirt, staining it heavily.

MONKEY

(Disgusted, then smiling)

Instant Karma.

INT. INDIAN ROOM IN RISHIKESH - DAY - 2016

A simple room, decorated in Indian style. Siddhartha, an Indian philosophy professor, sits in a guru position in front of about ten participants, including Monkey (25-26 years old) and Mamie Coco (a French retiree).

SIDDARTHA

... the secret of life is simple: we are already happy! Take a 4-year-old child and leave him alone in a room. Yes, he will cry at first, but after drying his last tears, he will start playing with the floor that has become lava for him. He returns to his true happy nature! (He smiles subtly.)

Monkey raises his hand.

MONKEY

It's true that in our society, we are made to forget that we are already happy.

SIDDARTHA

Jim-ji, the little genius... (The room laughs.) Yes, indeed, you are right. As soon as we condition our happiness, we are not happy.

MAMIE COCO

I see: "I will be happy if I have a job, I will be happy if I have children..." etc. But is a child happy if he is at war?

SIDDARTHA

(Observes Mamie Coco in silence, then smiles.) This is a question I've often been asked. And I answer this question: "Karma." (Silence. He closes his eyes.) All life is governed by Karma. Every individual will commit good or bad actions in their life. Take a war criminal... like...

MONKEY

Godwin moment!

(Laughter in the room.)

SIDDARTHA

(Smiling, eyes closed.) Yes, like that mustachioed German dictator. He committed enormous atrocities and ended his days to escape the consequences of his actions. But Karma has no deadline. Thus, the Karma of the dictator's soul, the Purusha, will reincarnate in a new human life, in a country in civil war, suffering from famine and violence. Karma does not only concern one person but can also concern a group of people, or even a country...

MAMIE COCO

(Interrupts him.) Wait! You mean that children victims of war deserve it? That's shocking!!

MONKEY

At the same time, Mamie Coco, it makes sense to me: I find it fairer than paradise or hell. Why should we be eternally punished or rewarded for a single life? At least with Karma, if we messed up in one life, we have a second chance in another...

SIDDARTHA

(Opens his eyes and laughs.) Jim-ji, you are truly a genius! (Laughter in the room.) Yes, that's a good point: it indeed raises the notion of universal justice, the Dharma. Karma is just the agent that ensures the proper functioning of Dharma. For me, as a yogi, Karma is divine justice... To answer your question, Mamie Coco-ji, a child in a war-torn country can be happy. It will be difficult, but not impossible. That's why the sages have passed on this knowledge for millennia, so that we awaken to our true nature, the Purusha - the Soul. When a spirit awakens to Purusha, it is immediately happy. The worst criminal can find himself crying like a child if he becomes aware of his Purusha... Well, I see that the last hour of class is ending. Take a meditative break.

SIDDARTHA AND THE STUDENTS

(In chorus, the words appear on screen.)

Om asato ma sad gamaya.

Lead me from untruth to truth.

Tamaso ma jyotir gamaya.

Lead me from ignorance to knowledge.

Mrityor ma amritam gamaya.

Lead me from death to immortality.

Om shanti shanti shanti.

Om peace, peace, peace.

Phalouss DT Anonymous Dreamer TruthID (verified) Eternal Sadhaka $D.Worth XXX.XXX.XXX (SADAKAH members info only) IAC mentors: [Pachamama, Aborigen, Maha Dewa, ... [click here for more info] Mentor: Monkey]

Hi everyone! Do you recognize me? I appeared in the first episode of White Mirror, I'm Monkey's buddy... (He smiles, then pouts.) Yeah, you don't remember me, no big deal. Today, I'm here to present the DTC autonomy pack - the Dream Truth Pack - for all members at Sadakah rank. The Dream Truth Pack includes:

A two-hectare plot... (Images of a huge plot in the French countryside.) This will allow you to develop your own family space, according to your tastes and colors via the DT Home interface. (Images of harmonious farms and families enjoying them.) The pack obviously includes everything for fair and healthy agriculture and farming. (Phalouss interacts with a holographic interface.) The DTC Local Platform will allow you to exchange and make decisions with neighbors. (Phalouss organizes a delivery of organic tomatoes to his neighbor.) The autonomy pack gives access to the D.Net network with quantum speed! And to D.PS - Offline independent location system developed by DTC. (Phalouss plans a marijuana plantation in a common space on a 3D holographic map.) We also thought about your mobility: a car for 4 people only and a DIY repair garage to build what you want! (Image of Momo assembling a motorcycle with his children.) And the best: DTC Karma Bots will set up free energy in your space. (Robots set up stone tower constructions resembling Nepalese temples.) Then, in the long term, supply energy to your neighborhood. (Back to Phalouss and his rake.) Pretty good, huh? And I forgot to mention the robots provided based on the number of group members. (A message appears: "Robot delivered if the child is 4 years or older.") There for social, agricultural, household help... etc. How much does it cost? (He smiles.) Nothing! But there are some conditions... (They appear on screen: 2 people over 18 minimum; Be over 18; Be Sadhaka level minimum; 100,000 $D.Worth reputation minimum.) That's it! And remember that if you do illegal actions, your pack rights can be revoked. See you soon and hope to see you in the DTC... The Dream Truth Pack motto: Well-being and well-having!

EXT. D.T. REHABILITATION CENTER - TIBET - DAY - 8 YEARS AFTER THE ANNOUNCEMENT

A remote temple in the Himalayas. Racaillou (sports educator), Rabbi Jacob (anonymous DTC Israeli), the Venerable Hang (aged Buddhist monk, anonymous DTC Himalayan), 10 Buddhist monks, the vagabond soldiers from the previous scene, and a dozen other people perform coordinated sun salutations on a snowy cliff. All wear simple Buddhist robes. A dozen DTC Bots reproduce the movements. The Rabbi counts in Hebrew.

Gentlemen, it's far from easy to do 108 sun salutations. Congratulations! We can go prepare for the morning silent collation. But first, I wanted to tell you that I'm impressed by your fervor and discipline. It's been two years to the day since you joined the DTC reintegration program. You committed, for the most part, heinous crimes... (Images of looting, violence against women, elderly, children.) And in the old world, you would have been executed for that! By doing so, we would only have fueled the flames of hatred. But the DTC changed this vision, with the establishment of the Karma Police to bring order. The DTC also created Karma Forgiveness. The main essence of Forgiveness is to give a chance to everyone, even the worst criminals. Criminals like you. (He walks among the group.) When you arrived here, you spat in our faces and lived only for violence... (Scene where the angry group is subdued by robots.) But in our fight to bring back peace, we persisted in educating and appeasing you. (Image of Racaillou in judo.) We taught you a path that allowed you to accept who you really are. (The criminal group cries and hugs in front of photos of war children.) We simply showed you the way. (He stops at the cliff and turns around.) I wanted to announce that the intensive education phase is over. From now on, you will sleep in common dormitories, that will change from your meditation cell. The dormitory rules are the same: no communicating after 9:30 PM. Apply brahmacharya until 6:30 AM, after breakfast. You know the routine that follows... But I congratulate you again: you have crossed a milestone! You still have 8 years to live in the redemption temple, but I'm happy to tell you that you no longer consider these 8 years as a condemnation. Am I wrong? (A hand raises in the group. Racaillou signals him.)

RACAILLOU

Benji.

BENJAMIN

(Flashback: Naruto robot knocks him out with a rasengan electric taser effect.) Yes, I speak on behalf of mine, but I think we all consider this as 8 years of blessing. (He smiles slightly.) On behalf of all, thank you to you and the DTC for giving us a second chance. Shalom.

DANIEL

(Raises hand. They say: "Dany, go ahead.")

Daniel the penitent - DT anonymous IN REPENTANCE For: 8 years, TruthID (verified) Padawan Sadhaka $D.Worth 26.000 IAC mentors: [Salomon, David, B.Jesus, ... [click here for more info] Mentor: Racaillou]

(Flashback: Sasuke robot throws a kunai taser at his neck - the kunai returns to Sasuke's hand.) Yes, thanks to everyone. I wanted to say that thanks to the DTC program, I evolved from a brute to an awakened being! In my studies, I read the story of the legendary samurai Musashi Miyamoto who, before becoming a great master of combat and poetry, was a brute who used violence to live. He is taken in by a monk while Musashi tried to steal, and the monk locked him in a room full of books for two years... That's where he learned to control himself and become a great man. I thank God and the DTC for providing me with the book about his life in my cell. I committed many horrors in my life, I... killed... (Silence.)... raped... (He interrupts himself and tries to control himself.) I am in repentance and I see this as a blessing. Thanks to the program, I was able not only to educate myself but also to discipline myself. Every day God gives me, I wake up with enthusiasm and desire to learn and practice yoga, Shaolin kung-fu. (We see the detainees working on kung-fu postures.) Every day, I work with the earth to grow our admirable vegetables. (We see the detainees cultivating vegetables outside the temple.) It's the best punishment they could give me! Thank you. Shalom.

ALL

Shalom.

(Silence.)

HANG

(The camera pulls back to a panoramic view of the Himalayan chains during sunrise. The students stand, eyes closed, hands joined at heart level.)

It's time to prepare for the morning collation. Sit down.

(All sit in lotus position.)

HANG AND THE GROUP

(In chorus, the words appear on screen.)

Om saha navavatu.

Om, may He protect us both (the master and the student).

Saha nau bhunaktu.

May He nourish us both (with knowledge).

Saha viryam karavavahai.

May we work together with great energy.

Tejasvi navadhitamastu.

May our study be brilliant and enlightening.

Ma vidvishavahai.

May we not hate each other.

Om shanti shanti shanti.

Om peace, peace, peace.

(All - robots included - sit in lotus position. The sun begins to appear in the east.)
